

12th NATIONAL PUBLIC SERVICE TRAINERS' FORUM CONFERENCE

The Office of the Premier in KwaZulu-Natal will be hosting the 12th Annual Public Service Trainers' Forum Conference in partnership with the Public Service Trainers' Forum and the Public Administration Leadership and Management Academy from 10 to 12 November 2008 at the Albert Luthuli International Convention Centre (ICC) in Durban. Approximately 600 delegates are expected to attend this year's Conference.

The Conference constitutes the largest annual gathering of Public Service Trainers, Skills Development Facilitators, Human Resource Development Practitioners, and Human Resource Development Managers. The training and development of public servants is recognised as one of the strategic interventions that can contribute to improving levels of services delivery.

DATE : 10 to 12 November 2008
REGISTRATION : Sunday 9 November from 14:00 – 18:00
VENUE : Inkosi Albert Luthuli International Convention Center: Durban

CONFERENCE THEME : HRD as a strategic partner in improving human capability

CONFERENCE PURPOSE: To share knowledge, information and innovations on HRD to leverage its strategic role in improving human capability

CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES:

- Engage in discourse on Human Resource Development as a strategic partner in human capability development
 - Share best practices and innovation on Human Resource Development strategies, systems and policies
 - Establish innovative ways of elevating Human Resource Development as a strategic partner in improving human capability in the public service
 - Achieve an integrated approach to Human Resource Development through the implementation of legislative frameworks, policies and strategies
-

Contacts:

Mr F M A Safla : 033-395 2338/082 785 1615
Ms Beryl Sewpersadh : 033-395 3080/073 451 5092

palama
Public Administration Leadership and Management Academy
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

